

SupportAbility Reward Courage

2023-2024

JULIE INMAN COURAGE AWARD Application for Graduating Seniors

This award, to be used to further educational or vocational goals, is given to a student who shows courage by going forward in the face of adversity and/or life-changing or extraordinary obstacle. It recognizes courage and determination over physical and/or learning disabilities, illness of self or family member, the death of a loved one and unusually difficult circumstances at home.

Please write an essay describing your courageous situation being specific and giving details pertaining to your own story. You may nominate yourself or be nominated by a peer/parent. Please answer all the questions on this application before writing your essay!

Please check if this applies to you:

- Cancer Patient or Survivor
- Prospective Pre-Law Student
- Prospective Pre-Medical Student

NAME _____

STREET ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ STATE _____ ZIP _____

PHONE _____

EMAIL _____

My high school is _____ . The tremendous obstacle I face is _____ ,

My educational or vocational plan is? _____ ,

If you receive this award, how will you use it to move ahead? _____ .

Applications due to SupportAbility by April 1st, 2024

SupportAbility, Inc.

Post Office Box 4885, Irvine, CA 92616

SupportAbility does not give rewards based on disability, color or religion, gender or handicap.

SupportAbility is a registered 501c3 Non-Profit Corporation